RIT Nation

One of my indulgences is watching the Netflix series, Call the Midwife. After many years of not being much of a tv watcher, I have developed somewhat of an addiction—bowl of ice cream, computer on my lap and at times I will admit to binge watching. Anyway, each episode offers a bit of wisdom when one listens “between the lines”. I was recently engaged in the second season and a character offered a moment of self revelation to her housemate. She confessed, “I talk so that I won’t know what the silence holds.”. Hmmm, I wonder how many of us could say the same? Or, our moment of truth might be, “I listen to music so I won’t know what the silence holds”. As we begin this new week, I invite each of us to find a few moments of silence each day...give God a chance to whisper into our ear, or our heart or help us to see the beauty hidden in plain sight. We might find ourselves surprised!

It’s not too late to sign up for Alpha! “What is it?” you might ask! Alpha is a journey with other Newman students exploring the Catholic faith, over 11 weeks. Each talk/video looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation. Alpha will be Monday evenings from 6 pm—8:15 pm at St. Anne’s Church on Mt. Hope Avenue. Dinner and transportation will be provided. Word on the street is that the meals are Awesome! You can sign up after Mass or email amncpm@rit.edu

This weekend, at both Masses, you will begin to hear about Tiger Stripes, Newman’s very own outreach service program. We learn much about ourselves when we serve and care for others. Tiger Stripes gives Newman students the opportunity to serve many who really need our help. Tiger Stripes gets students off campus working with people living on the margins of society, encouraging children who live each day below the national poverty level and only dream of going to college. Tiger Stripes assists refugees who have made Rochester their home. We tutor, we prepare and serve dinner, we teach basketball skills, we play! It’s our hope that we “find ourselves” as we help others grow and become the people they are meant to be for our world. Consider Tiger Stripes and feel free to bring a friend along with you.

Remember we are here for you. If any of us can be of assistance, please send an email or let us know. Have a good week!

Peace and good, Alice
