Summer afternoon, summer afternoon; to me those have always been the two most beautiful words in the English language. –Henry James

I am hoping that each of us find some time to sit quietly and enjoy all that summer has to offer. It is so easy to think of summer as a time to get those projects done, go here, do this or that! Might I invite each of us to take some time each week to simply breathe and enjoy a summer afternoon (or part of it).

Blessings on these days. Thank you for all that you are for our community and world. As I often say to our students and I now say to our local community and those with us over the summer: The world desperately needs each of us. It is up to us to be that light of hope and goodness in a world that can at times seem terribly dark. Share hope with others. It does not have to be large or extravagant. You and I just might be the hope another need to carry continue.

June 26th at 11 am we will have a coffee hour. At this coffee hour I would like to have a community meeting to talk about the finances of our community. I will share the budget that closes on June 30th as well as look ahead to the future. One of my goals for our community is to become financially sustainable. I truly appreciate the generosity of each of you. Your thoughtful gifts mean the world to us and as we pray each weekend at Masses, “may God continue to bless our benefactors and may we be good stewards of all that is entrusted to us.” Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Next weekend we will have a sign up for those who might want to bring some food to share for our coffee hour.

The controversial movie, Me Before You is out at theatres. Many have encouraged boycotting the movie. I would like to take another approach. How about we go see it and then gather for a discussion after? It would be a great time to talk about the movie, what our faith brings to the table and a bit of Catholic Social teaching. Any takers? Email me.

Peace and blessings this week.
