- Christ for the Curious... 10/3 noon—12:45 pm...bring a bag lunch, we will provide fruit, cookies and beverages. This is the last week in this casual 3 week series where we discuss the life of Jesus and its relevance to our lives today. All are welcome to come and enter into the conversation or simply listen. Monday, we will talk about the woman who touched the cloak of Jesus
- We still have a few spots for the January Service Learning Retreat and the March Service Learning Retreat. We will be going to a soup kitchen, the St. Francis Inn in Philadelphia. This is where our October Agape Latte speaker, Katie Horan worked for 5 years.
- Agape Latte is Tuesday, October 4 at 8 pm in Fireside Lounge.

RIT Nation

The other evening I did a talk at Mercy Spirituality Center on Simplicity. I sort of laughed when I was asked to offer my thoughts on simplicity. I feel like my life is anything but simple. Like many, I often feel like I am rushing from one place to another, never completing my "to do" list. And yet, like many, I hunger for a life that is a bit more simple, a bit less rushed, days where I feel like I am living a life filled with meaning and passion for others and the world around me.

Tuesday evening, October 4th at 8 pm in the Fireside Lounge, Katie Horan, from the RIT Leadership Institute will offer her perspective on living a life of passion and integrity at our first Agape Latte for the year. Many who have travelled to the St. Francis Inn on our service learning trips know Katie, for she was on staff at the Inn for 4 1/2 years. She now shares her infectious smile and energetic personality with the RIT community in the RIT Leadership Institute. (How lucky are we?) In addition to hearing Katie, the Brick City Singers will open the evening and delicious free desserts for all!

If you are looking for encouragement or hope, a good dose of enthusiasm and passion, consider coming to Agape Latte on Tuesday, October 4th at 8 pm in the Fireside Lounge in the Campus Center. She will not disappoint!

Have a great week. We are here for you!
