RIT Nation

The 10 am Mass this past Sunday brought tears to my eyes and a chill down my spine. Michael Wentland signed the first reading for our community as Jean Rodman, the interpreter offered voice. I was inspired, I was humbled and for a moment, I saw what could be in our community. With a grateful heart, I thank the team who dreamed the possibilities for our liturgies. Keep the ideas coming, continue to look at what might be so that we as a community don't get stuck in what has been. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. (On a side note, every other week, one of the readings at 10 am Mass will be in ASL.) I would also encourage all of us to consider learning a few signs that might help us worship well together. For example, might we all learn to sign the gospel acclamation? This might be a great way to begin welcoming others to our community and liturgy.

Some fun things are coming up:

Evening Away @ RIT - October 20, Hiking Retreat - October 22, Newman Night @ the Abbey and SUNY Geneseo - October 28, Afternoon of Service at Mercy Spirituality Center - October 30, Agape Latte with Kathy Hall - November 1, Sister of St. Joseph Service Weekend -November 4-6, Intercollegiate Retreat - November 4-6
You can find sign ups by the brick wall after Masses this weekend and next.

And, finally, remember that next weekend is Brick City Weekend - we will have three Masses on campus - Saturday, October 15 @ 4 pm, Sunday, October 16 @ 10 am and Sunday, October 16 @ 5 pm. Have a great week, remember that we are here for you!
Peace and good, Alice MN
