RIT Nation

November is the month that we as a church remember all those we have loved who have gone home to God. We begin the month with the celebration of the Feast of All Saints on November 1 and then the Feast of All Souls on November 2. Traditionally, throughout the month of November, we remember all those who have died at masses of the community. Some churches have a book of remembrance, others have a basket where names of those we have loved are placed. Newman will have a basket and papers that you can write the name of those you love who have gone home to God. We will continue this throughout the month. Each week at the preparation of the gifts, we will also bring up our basket of remembrance with the bread and wine and gifts of money. Papers will be available before and after Mass each week.

Many of you are aware that as a community we have been praying for Mary Lou Knapp. Mary Lou was the Catholic Chaplain here at RIT before I arrived. I am sorry to let you know that after a courageous battle with cancer, Mary Lou died on Thursday morning. Mary Lou was great at caring for the students of Newman. John Iamaio, one of the CRU chaplains described Mary Lou by saying, "Mary Lou was intense in the love that she showed to students." So true! I am often grateful for the foundation of care for students that was laid before I arrived at Newman RIT.

Calling hours are on Sunday, Nov. 6 from 2-5 pm at Miller Funeral Home. If you would like to go with others from Newman, we can meet at the Center for Religious Life at 2:30 pm. The Funeral Mass is Wednesday, Nov. 9th at 10 am. If you would like to go, meet at the Center for Religious Life at 9 am. We will need drivers. Please keep Mary Lou's family in your prayers.

Next weekend, after the 10 am Mass, the Knights of Columbus will host a pancake breakfast for the community. All are welcome. You can sign up by the brick wall today.

Have a great week. Peace and good,
Alice
