Agape Latte is Tuesday, February 7th at 8 pm in the Fireside Lounge. Dr. Bill Destler and his wife, Dr. Rebecca Johnson are our guest speakers. They will be sharing Lessons from the Journey! Free coffee, hot cocoa and desserts!

Kairos...it's a weekend well spent, learning about ourselves and how valuable each of us is in this world. Think about taking a weekend for yourself—Feb. 24-26

New Date: Hills and Chills....an afternoon of sledding, chili and movies. February 11, 3 pm—8 pm (If we still do not have snow, we will still have chili, movie & games.

RIT Nation

I spoke to a student a week ago who was hoping for more from her relationship with God. “I feel sort of empty when I think about God. I want to feel excitement, just feel more.” As I listened, I heard about the full life of an RIT student. From early in the day until late at night, many things need attention. After awhile, I quietly asked, “how often do you pray or take time for quiet?” There was silence.

Yes, just like a good friendship, time for one another is needed in growing a fuller relationship with God. Yes, God is always here, walking beside each of us. But, if we don't take moments of quiet, giving God a chance to speak to us...possibly through a glimpse of sun in the midst of clouds and snow...maybe through the words of a friend...a sunset....poem, scripture or even a movie....then we very well might feel that God has abandoned us.

And so, as we begin another week, take a few moments to look for and recognize the presence of God in our midst. Our answer might come in the spectacular or in the subtle. Keep looking and keep sharing the light of hope and goodness with all you meet!

We have a few leadership opportunities available—we are still in need of one more person for our EBoard. This is a one semester appointment because of a co-op. We also are looking for someone who might be interested in organizing and promoting Operation Rice Bowl and, looking for a few people who might be interested in offering leadership in our evening retreat/dinner—An Evening Away at RIT. See me if you want more information or might be interested!

Peace and good,
