RIT Nation Best Lent Ever.

It still seems like a surprise to me that Ash Wednesday is this week! Ash Wednesday, March 1, Masses will be at noon and 6:30 pm (please note the change of time). I will be in the Allen Chapel from 8:30 am– 9:30 am on Ash Wednesday for “drive by Ashes” (A chance to pray for a few minutes and receive Ashes if your schedule does not allow you to be at one of the two Masses.

Here is our chance to make this the BEST LENT EVER. I am going to try myself to be a bit more intentional about Lent this year. It is so easy to let life get in the way of our good intentions. I found a few great resources that you might find helpful!

Prayer: Our Deepest Longing by Ronald Rolheiser

Whether you struggle to believe in God, are a beginner in prayer, or are more advanced in your spiritual practice, this book will gently lead you to a deepening experience of God in prayer.

Newman @ RIT has been given a generous gift—we are able to give 250 people this book free for a richer experience of Lent.

Discussion groups will be held for conversation about this book during Lent:

- Mondays in the Skalny Room noon—1 pm led by Alice Miller Nation
- Thursdays in the Sun Room (CRL) 5:00—5:30 pm led by Matt Bauer
- Thursdays in the Prayer Room (CRL) 5:00-5:30 pm in Spanish
led by Carmen Nunez
