Easter Joy...we experienced some of it Friday afternoon on campus as a special TIGER WALK was held to honor Drs. Destler and Johnson on the occasion of Dr. Destler's upcoming retirement. It was delightful to watch the campus community come together on a beautiful, sunny April afternoon to say THANK YOU and Best Wishes. Yes, this is an example of Easter Joy.

Easter Joy...watching a student distribute communion to her peers although very nervous to do so...Yes, more Easter Joy.

Easter Joy...being part of the anticipation of the students among us who will be Baptized, Welcomed into the Church, Confirmed and celebrate First Eucharist on Saturday evening. Their enthusiasm is contagious...I am excited for them. More Easter Joy.

Easter Joy...knowing that our efforts do make a difference....whether it be serving dinner at Bethany House, going to Nativity Prep to watch their school play and delivering a tray filled with cookies for the young actors and actresses, cleaning the yard at Mercy Spirituality Center....yes, many, many examples of Easter Joy.

We see it all around us, but don't often call it Easter Joy...look around...notice the miracles happening right before our eyes...take a few moments to find goodness and hope in places we might not expect...look for the possible emerging from what seems impossible....yes, Easter Joy is all around us. I invite you to give it a name and celebrate it!

Our celebrations of Easter will be:

Saturday, April 15 - Easter Vigil- 8 pm, Allen Chapel

Sunday, April 16 - Easter Sunday- 10 am (interpreted) and 5 pm Allen Chapel

Know that we are here for you. Peace and good,

Alice amncpm@rit.edu/Dave dhunzinski@outlook.com
