I am so pleased to let the community know that Kevin Cilano will be joining the Newman Community as part of the ministry team. Kevin comes to us from the St. Francis Inn in Philadelphia after serving as a Franciscan Volunteer and staff member. Kevin is from Rochester and currently ministers at St. Peter's Kitchen—a soup kitchen in the former St. Peter and Paul Church on West Avenue.

The interview committee felt Kevin was a good fit for Newman and Kevin thought the same. Kevin will continue his ministry at St. Peters and join Newman in the afternoons/weekends. Kevin will start mid August.

Thanks to all who were able to join us for the Habitat build day on Thursday. I for one now have two new skills for my resume: setting lock sets on doors (I now know the difference between a passage knob and a privacy knob!) and hanging drywall...and I also learned how to cut out an electrical box from behind a piece of drywall! It was a great day, lots of smiles and laughter and we even had the opportunity to meet the gentleman who will be living in the house with his children. Flower City Habitat will let us know when the dedication of the house is scheduled, anyone who wants to go is welcome.

This Tuesday is our Day of Giving. This is an important day for us. We need to get the message out to folks; it's not how much you give, rather, that you give. Here is an opportunity for each of us to give what we are able so that we can continue to grow and share our mission with the young people of RIT.

This past week I received an email from a parent of one of our students. It was a thoughtful note thanking us for all the opportunities we offer students here at Newman. She left the most recent newsletter on the counter so she would remember to write me and thank our community for meals provided by our local/core community, the various retreats and opportunities to serve and meet new people. And so I say to each of you, thank you, thank you, thank you. The success and growth of Newman is a team effort. We come together and care for one another and those around us. Thank you for your support, thoughtful care and prayers. We are all in this together!

Peace and Blessings, Alice
